

Meet the world's first blue dwarf giraffe!

With five purple spots and half the normal size, Fiver struggles to belong. His journey leads him across the vast savanna plains of Africa to the quaint city of Savannah, Georgia. Along the way, Fiver encounters many exciting adventures, signs and wonders – finding inspiration in the most unusual places. Join Fiver as he discovers his purpose for being born different and gets a second chance at finding home.

Fiver.515publishing.com

Written by Jill Bugbee
Illustrated by Jennifer Davison

FIVER FINDS HOME

To our beloved Collin & Kayla:
You are deeply loved, celebrated, and precious to us!
May you discover your true identity in Christ,
fulfill your destiny in life, and receive your full reward in Heaven.

Forever Yours,
Mom and Dad

FIVER FINDS HOME

Fiver Finds Home

©2021 515 Publishing Inc.
Allentown, PA 18104

All rights reserved. All words and illustrations © 515 Publishing, Inc. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means - electronic, mechanical, digital, photocopy, recording, or any other - except for brief quotations in printed reviews, without the prior permission of the publisher.

Published by Square Tree Publishing
5151 Berkeley Avenue
Westminster, CA 92683

For additional information, please contact 515 Publishing, Inc.
515publishing.com

Written by Jill Bugbee
Illustrated by Jennifer Davison

Story by Jill & Eric Bugbee
Storyboards by Eric Bugbee

Under the sunset sky of the vast savanna grasslands of Africa, a blue giraffe was born. Daddy wondered, "He's blue?" and Mommy gasped, "He has five purple spots!" They looked at each other in surprise, and together they exclaimed, "Fiver is his name!"

Fiver was born into a giraffe family called a TOWER. His parents observed he was different, but loved him dearly and believed he was special.

