About the Author

At age 5, Bradley Kind lost an orange shoe. He is still looking for it. Although he has never found that shoe, he is having a lot of fun searching. The Lost Orange Shoe, was selected EDITOR'S PICK by BookLife.

“Problem-solving and tongue-twisting rhymes power this delightful debut.” —BookLife by Publisher's Weekly

Before writing for children, Bradley was an inventor, program manager, and software engineer at several Silicon Valley companies, including Amazon, and Intel.

He hopes you always have fun, even when you are late for a party and can't find your favorite shoe.

About the Illustrator

Shirin is an artist, animator, and architectural designer based in Toronto who loves making magic for kids.

Praise of The Lost Orange Shoe by BookLife: “Shirin Hashemi’s crisp, appealing character design deepens the fun, with each animal boasting memorable details and big, relatable emotions that drive home the beats of the story.”

Shirin hopes to help kids discover joy and wonder in their own imaginations.
